

Meet Us

by Robert Babecka

Bob and Cyndi Babecka created this Web site in the summer of the year 2000 after joining the Catholic Church the prior Easter. Cyndi passed away in 2010. We had been married since 1994. I live in Powder Springs, Georgia, and have six children—Kaylynn, Debbie, Joseph, Thomas, Cynthia, and Margaret. My parish is St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church in Dallas, Georgia.

Cyndi worked as a wife and homeschooling mother and was born in Atlanta. Cyndi was the Web master. I am recently retired after working as an engineer in the nuclear electric industry. I have lived in the Atlanta area since 1989. We are a home school family.

We participated in the pro-life movement for several years before becoming Christian and decided to use natural family planning when we discovered that all birth control pills currently available prevent birth some of the time by aborting the new life. Sadly, most Protestant pro-life groups avoid discussing this fact even though this information is frequently included with the pills.

Based on our sidewalk counseling experience in front of Atlanta abortion clinics, we confirmed reports that most women seeking abortions were doing so because of failed contraception, followed by those admitting to sloppy usage of contraception. Unfortunately, many people we met at the clinics claimed to be Christians – even Catholics.

We were further dismayed to learn that most Catholics disobeyed the Church's teachings on birth control, the teachings are almost never discussed from the pulpit, and many obedient Catholics cannot defend these teachings.

On the bright side, we met many people who embrace lives of marital chastity when they heard and understood the Church's teachings. This fact inspired us to get the word out.

With a suggestion from our friends Pete and Kelly (Cyndi's Sponsor), some reflection, prayer, and a little work, THINKCHASTITY.com was born. The Babecka family hopes that the information contained in these pages will bless you as it has blessed us.

If you would like to get to know us better, please send us a note. Here's my card.
